Only ten more days, girls, and leap year

Dr. L. T. Shirley, of Central, was in the

Remember, the time for paying taxes

Remember, boys, and don't go near the cotton platferms with your fireworks. The tax levy for Anderson County for Miss Nannie Hunter, of Cashler's Valley, is in the city spending the holidays with friends.

Mrs. A. L. Furstenburg, who has been visiting her parents in Georgia, has returned home.

Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Johnstone intend spending the holidays with relatives and friends in Newberry. E. B. Murray. Esq., is in Weshington this week attending to professional busi-ness. He will return Saturday.

A meeting of the Stockholders of the Bank of Anderson will be held on the 3rd of January. See advertisement. Miss Susie Whitfield, a student of Wec-leyan Female College, Macon, Ga., has come home to spend the helidays.

The P. M. I. Cadets will have a week's beliday, and a number of them will leave to-morrow for their respective homes. Easley Messenger: "Mr. James Robin-son, who lives near Majora' shop, in An-The business houses of the city are full of good things for the inner man, and, the best part of it, everything is very cheap. We are told that a car load of poultry will be brought down from Peudleton next week to the Anderson Poultry Show.

Mr. W. H. Barnes, an old Anderson boy, but who is now living at Prattville, Ala., has been spending a few days in the Our young friend, Samuel Trowbridge, has gone to Abbeville to engage in the brokerage business. We wish bim suc-

The bycicle fever is prevalent and several new wheels have been purchased lately. It takes $50 or $75 to buy a good The banks and main business houses of the city will be closed next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Bear this in mind. machine. Black eyes and bruised heads will not now necessarily be evidence of "drunk and disorderly." It may mean that an amateur byciclist has been uncere-The weather is very changeable in this section. One day it is each and clear and the next day it is warm and cloudy or raining. moniously thumped against mother earth in his first attempts "to tame and break

When passsing Minor's Ten Cent Store The Abbeville Press and Banner, of last week, says: "Mr. Walter McFall. of Au-derson last Sunday in Abbeville with his bant cast." Rev. Dr. Riley, of Easley, preached in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday might, and his sermon was highly enjoyed by the congregation.

The INTELLIGENCER'S Devil returns thanks to "Ned Needle," our Newell cor-Mr. J. D. Allen, of Carnesville, Ga., but a former citizen of Anderson County, was in the city last Thursday and gave the In-TELLIGENCER a pleasant call. On Thursday and Friday of next week the Anderson Poultry and Pet Stock Association will have its exhibition in the There will be a general suspension of business in Anderson next Monday, Tueseverybody a chance to enjoy the holidays. One need not be rich to enjoy making Christmas presents. It is not the value of what is given, but the feeling which prompts the gift that makes the pleasure. W. S Brock, Master of Finance

Mr. E. M. Duckworth and family, of this County, have gone to Texas to spend a few weeks with relatives. We wish them a pleasant journey and a safe return home. The Directors of the Farmers' and Mer-chants' Bank met last Monday, and, after transacting other business, declared a dividend of five per cent , payable on and

On next Monday, 26th inst., there will be a balloon ascension by Prof. Reselle at Pledmont, if the weather is favorable. The people generally are invited to wit-Married, on Thursday, December, 15, 1892, by Rev. W. B. Hawkins, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mr. Clarence Moseley and Miss Beulah Richardson, all running in the paper.

"I do hope," said a citizen in the Post-office a few evenings ago, "that when we get a Democratic Postmaster he will place cember 20, 1892, at 2 o'clock, at the resia light in here for the benefit of the pub-lic." We second the motion, Married, on Sunday, December 18, 1692, at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. N. R. Ballenger, in Easley, Mr. R. W. King and Miss Alice Childs, both of Anderson County. The Sullivan Hardware Co., has just received a big supply of new guns, which are being offered at very low prices to close out during the holidays. If you Walhalla Courier: "Mr. R. B. Norris has resigned his position as depot agent and telegraph operator at Walhalls and want a bargain gun, give the Company a accepted the agency of the Columbia, New-berry and Laurens Railroad, at Newberry. The offerings in the Preabyterian Church next Sunday morning will be for the Thornwell Orphanage. The members of the congregation are urged to attend the service prepared to make a liberal The cotton receipts for this season have nearly reached 19,000 bales in this city. This is more than 1,000 bales ahead of the courteous and obliging to all patrons of receipts for the same time last season. Our buyers are still paying New York prices

A telegram was received in the city this morning, directed to Mr. A. E. Rice, of this County, informing him that his son, Mr. Amaziah Rice, who is a resident of Atlanta. Ga., was dying. No particulars could be obtained. An exchange says every time a cigar dealer takes a bandful of cigars from a box and spreads them out on top of the show case for a purchaser to select from he violates one of the most stringent laws of the United States.

1804-05, Attorison, of our people, and especially those whe have grown up since the war, who do not Invitations have been issued by the Anderson Dancing Club to its annual ball, which will take place at the Hotel Chiquola on Tuesday evening, January 3rd, Bearden's Band, of Augusta, Ga., When you are out shopping visit Hub-bard's Corner, on north Main street, and see what he has in store for you. He keeps most anything you may need, and has a big lot of Christmas goods. Read there will be preaching at Cross Roads Baptist Church next Wednesday night, 28th inst., and the services will continue through the week. The friends of the gation are cordially invited to at-Col. M. P. Tribble is now a resident of

An old bachelor citizen suggests that Anderson County have a baby show in this city in the early spring. It would be a novel sight to see all the pretty babies of the County on exhibition, and would no doubt attract a crowd of visitors. It springs, It springs, It shows the springs of would be easy to raise the funds for the lehem p. m. 5th Sunday—Bethlehem, Asbury and

A famous soap manufacturer was once asked why he did newspaper advertising altogether and did not follow in the footsteps of other manufacturers, putting up sign-beards, printing almanacs, etc. He replied that in his experience he found that | acore. the man who did not read the newspapers If subscribers to newspapers generally knew how important it was to publishers to have each individual subscription paid

Chief of Police E. G. Rose has been granted leave of absence for a week by the Council, and will spend the Christmas The Chief has earned this short rest by faithful and energetic attention to his du-ties. During his absence Capt. J. B. McGee will act as chief.

Twenty-five more convicts went up to Clemson College Monday evening. These make, in all, one hundred and four convicts there now. The work of completing the huilding will commence at once and oushed as rapidly as possible. It is said that more carpenters will be employed, out no bosses are wanted. Editors and preachers are alike in that they look after the public welfare, and in turn are pounded by the public for so deing. A great difference exists, how-ever, in the character of the pounding. The prescher is built up and strengthened while the editor is knocked down and shattered. Be a preacher, young man. There will be services at Neal's Crock

Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in the interest of the Counie Max well Orphanage. The pastor, Rev J. T. Smith, will preach an appropriate sermon for the occason. The members of the congregation are urged to be present and prepared to contribute liberally to the Orphanage.

The Orangeburg Enterprise says: "If there were no Orangeburg, Anderson would be the best place for Methodist preachers. Rev. Mr. Smith, we hope will be made to realize this before he leaves us. His praise of Anderson, which we know is fully deserved, assures us of the welfare of our beloved ex-pastor and his

The Walballs News says: "Mr. W. C. Pike, one of Anderson County's hest citizens, has recently purchased a plantation of Mr. T. D. Alexander on Conversas Creek, within four miles of Walhalla, and will move his family to it this week. We extend a hearty welcome to Mr. Pike and trust that fertune may amile upon him derson County, eats and sleeps under the same roof, and yet he eats in Pickens County and sleeps in Anderson County. The County line runs through his house. He votes in Anderson County because he

The Anderson County Bible Society wilt hold its annual meeting in the Methdist Church of this city on the first Sunday night in January, at 7.30 o'clock.
Rev. T. H. Law, who represents the American Bible Society in this State and North Carolina, is expected to be present. A cordial invitation is extended to the look in the show window and you will see an immense fire cracker. It weighs ten pounds, is twenty-five inches long and fifteen inches in circumference. Mr. Minor will fire it on Christmas Eve at about 9 o'clock p. m., and invites every-body to come and see it. He has a big stock of Christmas goods, and is selling hem low. See his advertisement.

man of Brushy Creek Township, who was born, reared and has always resided in Auderson County, sad who is now in the 33rd year of his age, visited Anderson C H. last Thursday for the first time in his lile. This is a little remarkable Mr. Jones, his neighbor's say, has always

At a regular meeting of Chiquola Lodge, No. 32, Knights of Pythias, last Friday evening, the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year: J. B. Lewis Chancelor Commander; Louis Sharpe, Vice-Chancelor Commander; E. F. Cock-ran, Prelate; S. N. Gilmer, Keeper of Records and Seals; Guy I. Grove, Master at Arms; W. R. Hubbard, Master of Ex-Z. T. Wilbite, Trustee.

nocket stamp novelties, commercial and anking stamps of every variety, has presented the Intelligences with three hand stamps and a self inking pad for same, for which we return many thanks. If any of our readers need anything in the ine mentioned above, we advise them to write to Mr. Wigington, who will supply

As everybody else in Anderson is going to have three holidays mext week, the printers want it, too, and we have decided

Marrried, on Tuesday afternoon, Deence of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. R. Webb, on McDuffle street, by Rev. O. L. Martin, Mr. Walter Jones, of Tailadega, Ala., and Miss Essle Slough, of this city. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for Alabama to spend the holidays with the groom's parents. Mr. Jones travels South and North Carolina for the Traylor Tobacco Co., and will make Co-lumbia his home. He is fortunate in his

The railroad is a part of the great system of the Atlantic Coast and Seaboard Air Line Railroads. Mr. Norris has been at Walhalla over five and a half years and during all this time has proven himself a nost capable and efficient officer. Kind. his office, he at the same time faithfully watched the interests of his employers. During his stay he has made many friends who regret to see him leave." Mr. Norris has a host of friends and relatives in our section who will join us in wishing him enterprise and originality, has gotten up a unique and novel souvenir of the war days in Anderson. It is a silver teaspoon of a most beautiful design. In the bowl of the spoon is an engraving of what is known as the P. M. I., surrounded by the following words: "C. S. A. Treasury, 1864-65, Anderson, S. C." There are many or more employees in the treasury, and the Institute building and boarding house ury remained here until the surrender, when it suddenly disappeared one night, and for years after the war the pieces lay around the grounds of the building. We are under obligations to Mr. Hubbard for one of the souvenir spoons, which we apthe city, occupying the former home of Mr. W. F. Barr, on Calhoun street, which

Townville Circuit Appointments. For the present the following will be the appointments for Townville Circuit: let Sunday-Jones Chapel a. m.; Smith

3rd Sunday-Smith Chapel a. m.; Jones

Gold Pens, Fountain Pens and Fancy Inkstands at G. W. Fant & Sen's Beek-Boy's Suits for $1.25 at C. F. Jones & with her on the banks of the beautiful

Co's. Clothing Store.

The marriage of Mr. Howard A. Ed.

Miss Virginia Evans presided at the organ and rendered a sweet wedding march with her usual skill. Just at 9 o'clock the wedding party entered the church, the groom and groomsmen coming out of the robing rooms on either side of the pulpit, and meeting, each, the lady with whom he was to stand, and arranged themselves in a semi circle ou the pulpit platform. The following is the order in which they entered:

Miss Sadio Manly, of Greenville, with W. Quattlebaum, of Anderson. Miss Olive Brown, of Anderson, with Vm. A. Edwards, of Darlington. Miss Gertrude Hoyt, of Greenville, with Miss Sallie Edwards, of Darlington. with Lieut. T. W. Gary, of Anderson.
Miss Carrie Miller, of Greenville, with

Lieut. W. L. Law, of Anderson.
Miss Emma Edwards, of Darlington, with Marion Lide, of Darlington.

Then came the bride leaning on the rm of her sister and first bride's mald, Miss Annie Patrick. They were met at the front of the altar by the groom and his best man, J. Edward Norment, of Darlington, and exchanging partners, took their positions on the platform in front of the officiating minister, who soon pronounced them husband and wife. The bride was beautifully attired in a white crimped bengaline with pearl trimmings. Ornaments, diamond ear rings, the gift of her sister, Mrs. Gurganus, and a diamond pin, the gift of the groom. The bridesmaids were white China silk, entrain, trimmed with vio-lets, and each carried a silver basket of vielets. The groomsmen also wore but-The ushers were Robert E. Ligon, Ben. S. Patrick and Joseph S. McCully, of Anderson, and Walter Edwards, of Dar-

After the ceremony the bridal party and a number of guests repaired to the residence of Col. J. B. Patrick, the father of the bride, where an elegant reception was held. The young couple were the recipients of a number of very handsome On Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Edwards left for Darlington, their future home, carrying with them the best wishes of a host of friends.

Needle's Newell News.

After an absence of several weeks I gain take up my pen to give you the Neweil news. Our people have been moving around considerably since I last wrote you, therefore our flourishing little burg has undergone many changes and now presents quite a different appearance to what

Everything is lively, and the good people all seem to be in a joyful mood. Hog and hominy abounds throughout the land, and on many farms wheat and other small grain has come up and is looking fine. In fact, there is but one thing at present that is particularly both. thing at present that is particularly both-ering us, and that is a book agent. He is canyassing the suburbs and is expected in the city at any hour We wish the poor fellow no harm whatever, and, to substantiate the fact, we have chained ou dog, who wouldn't, provided you'd let him gather the ecrap, turn around on his heels for the difference between a scrap from a book agent's pants and a fresh chunk of best. We resolved once before that we would break the animal from his book agent-trowser-sampling habit, but it was of no avail. The agents would detain ns from our work so long that we could Those that have never seen our dog in pursuit of a book agent or lightning rod man, cannot form an idea of the velocity attained in the flight, neither the amusemest that there is in watching the performance. Therefore, it is profitable that ome of our readers may not at first believe that the temptation to loose him when being detained by such characters is son C. H. Mr. J. R Latimer has moved hard to overcome, but I know what is to Honea Path.
what for I have tried it, and in behalf of Mr. J. P. Pay the seller of books that is soon to give us a call. I will ask the good brethren that may read this to ora pro nobis that we may be enabled to overcome the tempts tion or away from home one when he calls. Undonbiedly the "Variety Etore" now contains one of the completest stocks of cods to be found in this part of the State. The genial proprietors say that they are guing to split things wide open from now until the 15th of January, '93. They have been in business ever since 1869, and it needs no gift of second sight to predict for them a great success.

Prof. J. A. Major's school at Mountain Springs is in a flourishing condition. The Sunday School at that place seems inclin ed to want to go into winter quarters, but the good people are going to purchase an-other stove, with which they hope to make the house more comfortable and keep the good work a moving. In so doing this humble scribe wishes for their unlimited success. We have also heard that a number of citizens are trying to get up a singing school at Mountain Springs for the benefit of those of the surrounding community that are not well versed in the art of producing vocal music. To this we say smen aloud, for a school of that kind we think in needed in our midst, very

The "Alliance Liver Pills" are still on the top round and can, until further or-ders, be obtained by all that will send 15 cents in postage stamps to P. O. Bez 28, Newell, S. C.

We recently heard it remarked that the Legislature now in session had been a stringent in reforming as it well night could, and in general "had done as d—d near nothing as possible." In mentioning the Legislature we are made to think of one of our Representatives who, it seems, is about to become famous as the man that speaks from the shoulder and one that hardly ever addresses an audience without opening up his entire vest front and airing his well developed breast.

They say that the reason he does this is because he thinks the heart is the seat of intellect and wants to keep it cool, Our "Froglevel" friends say that they have found another man that wants to learn the art of "snipeing" and will take their annual snipe hunt when the weather gets cold enough. Wonder who will hold the sack this time?

If cotton stays at ten cents a pound until planting time I am afraid that those of our farmers who have resolved to quit raising so much of the "stuff" will be like we are about turning our dog loose when a book book agent is around-too weak to over With some of our young people Christ mas trees, tournaments, sociables and

"break downs" are the topics of conversa We are having some wet, rainy weathe now, and in consequence the boys are making things lively for the few surviving rabbits that have taken refuge in the

This will be the last you will hear from us until the New Year shall have begun. for '92, I wish the INTELLIGENCER and its many resuers the compliments of the sea-Respectfully.

NED NEEDLE.

MESSES. EDITORS: It is with sadness that we take up our pen to record the death of Mrs. Emaline E. Wakefield, which occurred at her home near Holland's Store on Wednesday morning, the 14th inst, after ten day's illness of pneu-monia, in about the 70th year of her age. She was a daughter of Mr. Jesse McGee, a well known and long since decased citi-zen of this County. In her young womanhood she was married to Mr. Andrew J. Wakefield, who preceded her to the grave about thirty years. She was left widow at a time of all times most trying. but she fought the battle bravely and has gone down to her grave bearing with her the respect, the love, and a memory that shall outlast all things mortal. In her girlhood she joined the Baptist Church, and day by day let her light shine, mag-nifying her Saviour, whom she ever delighted to honor. She was never happier than when ministering to others, and deemed it a joy as well as a duty to make those around her happy. Three children (two daughters and one son) and a host of grand-children survive her, who will keenly miss her counsel and protecting love and example. A large number of friends tender their sym-pathies to the bereaved relatives in this with her on the banks of the beautiful river. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. J. R. Earle from 1 Thesa., 5th this vicinity. He killed one that netted this vicinity. He killed one that netted 328 pounds. Mr. J. A. Jones killed one that a second of the second of live together with him," after which her remains were laid to rest in the Cross Roads cemetery to await the final con-sumation of all things.

The farmers in this community are finishing up their affairs for this year, except some of them have to get their Christmas wood yet. A faithful year's mas holidays.

rest. Most of them have backtones and spareribs to live upon that were raised at home.

Mr. Luther Fant, of Townville, has The proceeds of the evening are to be

Mrs. Ella King.
As the Christmas holidays approach our bachelor boys begin to wander, Mr. J. F. King straying off nearly so far as Honea Path Saturday night. But "George" says it is useless for him to go, as he has his house nearly completed, and has just received a box of flowers.

If we can believe Madame Rumor, Cherokee is to lose one of her most charming "widows" during the holidays. One of our "Long Branch" "widowers" was in hopes that she would remain in An-our girls are going to "Mohawk" Christ-mas, and of course that means that an equal amount of our boys will go, toe, and in fact some of them just will go anyway, and we can't much blame them, fer there is something down there that will draw them, so says "Julian." Mr. Jessie T. King was re-elected Su-third year he has served them.

Mrs. Nancy Gaines, of this section, has seen very sick, but we are preud to say One of our neighbor boys, who is sweet on a girl in Mohawk, thought he would present her with a dozen apples, carrying them to a dance. After dancing a while he suggested that they go out to the bug-gy and get them. He was very badly surprised on reaching the buggy to find that some mischievous boy had removed his apples and in their place had put so many rocks. His girl, believing he was playing an intentional joke on her, refused to believe that he had apples at the start, and now he is racking his brain trying to derive some plan by which he can convince her he did, and was not so adly arcited as she imagined. low the past three weeks, with fever, we other day that she had a red dress and red hat and for him to come and see her. He having the same color of hair as her dress, we reckon she wanted him so it would match her dress. But Doc, says she bought the dress to match his hair. Mr. W. J. McGee, of Starr, made a flying visit to this section Sunday, stopping at Mrs. Martin's. There was a very enjoyable entertainment at Mr. Jessie Fant's Thursday, 15th his shoes for Christmas.

In conclusion, "boys," try your best to make a merry Christmas for the girls and Burts and the Pastor. A nice program men are full of life and mu, and we have been arranged for the occasion. A like been arranged for the Centennial The Iresh meat is now ready for you,

Don't miss the Captata Friday night J. C. Milford attended the Grand Lodge C. E. Harper and W. H. Latimer have Charlie E. Cobb is clerking for Callaham sales at House Path this fall as compared with last. Hard work and economy will bring us around alright yet. Our farmers are in good spirits; trade is brisk; school is flourishing, and every-thing betokens contentment and happi-May peace and good will prevail. Mr. Editor, come dewn to the hot sup-per on Wednesday night of Christmas week and we will try to insure you a good going to make his home at Honea Path. Mr. Andrew Simmons has been recotton weigher. The price has been put back to ten cents a bale.

Gleanings From Danver.

Pop.

ant weather now. rapidly now. Mr. J. S. McClellan has moved in, and we are daily expecting a new arrival in the person of Mr. John A. Huffstetta, our former blacksmith. We are glad to welcome him back to his old

We are also glad to welcome Mr. Robt Hammonds into our community.

Misses Mattie Eskew, Corrine Long, Maud Hubbard and Mr. Eugene Eskew left here a few days ago for a two week's visit to friends and relatives in Atlanta,

Mr. Oscar Hembree, Johnnie Eskov and sister and Miss Campbell are viriting elatives in Franklin County, Ga. Donnalde, S. C., has just returned home from a two week's visit to friends in this vicinity. I fear she left her heart behind with some one of these handsome young country fellows.

I found it the greatest medicine I ever used.

J. H. MENNICH, Attorney, 1225 F. Street, Washington, D. C.

Candy pullings, pound parties and singings are the order of the day, and the young people relian them keenly. We had the honor of visiting Mr. J. L. Jolley's fowl yard recently, and I am obliged to admit I never saw a finer selec

Alice News.

Sore eyes are prevalent in this commu-Postmaster Anderson is confined to his bed with the rheumatism. We wish him Mr. J. O. McAdams is on a visit to Dalisiting in this section. Mr Paul Fleming, of Hartwell, Ga., but formerly of this County, came over to see his old friends last week. Rocky River Church has decided to put a stop to its members dancing. A certain young man, it is said, visited his best girl last Sunday and during his stay asked her to be his wife. She replied by saving she was no fool. Mr. Monroe Burriss, of Elbert County, Ga. is visiting his uncle in this section. Miss Lula Bowen has been very sick, but at this writing, we are glad to say, she Anderson & Bell have a lot of Christmas goods which they are selling cheap.

May all the readers of the INTELLIGEN oun have a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Andersonville Items. We ask space in the columns of your valuable paper to inform the readers in the country that we are still in the land hour of sadness, and the writer of this sketch feels safe in saying that if we, who are left to mourn our departed friend, will but emulate her virtues, walk in her tracks, and lean upon the one so whom she trusted we will eventually still the heads of the living. The year 1892 is fast approaching the end, and am glad to see the people in such a prosperous condition. Every man in this section has corn she have on the hanks of the heautiful have killed meat sufficient for home use. that weighed 326 pounds.

The people of this section have decided to held services at the Church Christmas day, if not providentially hindered. It is to be hoped they will have a good time.

Misses Ida and Melia Wright, two

The Belton merchants have decided to

The patrons and friends of the Belton High School are cordially requested to come out to the children's exhibition on applied to the payment of a piano for the school. Let everybody come and help a laudable enterprise.

The exercises of Belton High School will be suspended for only one week during Christmas holidays, the exercises being resumed on Monday, January 2d.

If you want a big price for cotton and cotton seed, and desire to buy goods at the lowest living prices, come to Belton. Our merchants are among the best in the A number of our young people from the different Colleges will be home the last of this week. Be sure to come to the entertainment at Stringer's Hall Thursday evening, 29th in hopes that she would remain in Anderson County. But it seems like fate or love has decided that Abbeville shall be the gainer.

Miss Jeffie Welborn, of Easloy, and Miss Cora Eskew, of Piedmont, are visting relatives and friends in Belton.

Dr. Campbell and Mr. J. M. Geer are suffering from mumps.

Mr. Jas. C. Gosset, who has for the past rear resided at Anderson, will again move here on the 1st of January. He is a valuable citizen, and everyone is glad to know he is going to live with us again.

Mr. Thos. Cox, who has been living near Pelzer for a number of years, has built a neat cottage in town and is now occupying

Mr. Parrot of Darlington, will move excellent school advantages. Mr. G. H. Hahon will live over his brick stere next year, there being no vacant residences in town. He contemplates building in the near future, however. The Rev. A. Attaway and his son Al-pheus will live in our midst next year. The Rev. A. Attaway has the Anderson circuit to supply and his son has come to regain his broken down health. Mr. Geo. W. Sullivan's little son, Hewett, was seriously injured internally in playing about six weeks ago by falling on a playmate at school. He has since lin-gered between life and death, and it is ow thought that he will survive. The family have the sympathy of the whole community.

Mr. Garlington, of Laurens, will occupy the Mathewa residence next year. Williamaton will gain five or six new families

It has rained for two or three days.
Grain has been greatly benefited.

Messrs. Charley Watson, of Desn's, and W. R. Powell, of Mt. Carmel, spenta night with us last week.

Miss Dora Banister is spending a week with the family of D. A. McAlister.
Miss Ella McAdams, of the Carswell Institute, visited this place recently.

Messrs. V. M. Barnes, of Neva, S. C., and W. H. Barnes, of Alabama, is visiting the family of Capt. J. T. Barnes. Miss Lethe A. Pettigrew, of Antreville, spending a month with relatives and friends near this place.
Miss Linda E. Mauldin returned last

Sunday after a week's visit at Bleckley. Wm. Evans spent a few days in Bordeaux recently.

Mr. Capers Evans and family are off on a trip to Hartwell, Ga.
Mr. Hugh J. McKinney has been very sick recently, but is up again.

Mrs. H. M. Bouchillon, of Bordeaux, visiting her sister, Mrs. Edward Mitchel, of this place. Misses Rosa, Nannie and Burriss Tuck-er are off to the mountains and will be gone several days.

Mr. Mouroe Burriss, from Elberton, Ga. is circulating in our midst again.

Messrs. S. A. and W. J. Bowen hon-"Devil" along with you to play with.

White Plain Items.

Mr. H. G. Morrison and daughter, of Georgia, have been visiting friends and relatives in this community Measrs. J. M. Fisher and S. E. Calla ham, two excellent young men, spent last Sabbath at Rocky River, and it seems as if they came home looking disdaneful and sad because their best girls were not there. 'Gentlemen, don't let that agitate you, bear it in mind. Mr. Crayton Alewine, a bandsome young man, spent last Saturday night with Mr. Oscar Bowen. Come again, we are always glad to see you.

cently, and as she was not at home he had to try the trip again. Cora, be at home nex time. The wedding bells are ringing like fry-ing chickens. We hope they won't forget Mr. Editor, Christmas is drawing nigh and I reckon the little ones are on a look-out for old Santa Chaus. I wonder if he my hose.

Mr. Prue Callaham went to Rocky old you can't stand no hack.

Mr. Editor, let me invito you down. One of our near neighbors is fattening a old turkey for Christmas.

more rainy weather. LEMON ELIXIB. Its Wonderful Effects on the Liver, Stomach, Bowels and Kidneys. For Billionsness, Constipation and Ma larie, take Lemon Elixir. For Indigestion, Sick and Nervous Headsche, take Lemon Elixir.

KEEN EYE.

For Sleeplessness, Nervousness and Heartfailure take Lemon Elixir.

For Fevers, Chilis and Debility, take

Lemon Elixir.
Ludies, for natural and thorough organi regulation, take Lemon Elixir.

Dr Mozley's Lemon Elixir will not fail you in any of the above named diseases, all of which arise from a torpid liver, stomach, kidneys or bowels.

Prepared only by Dr. H. Mozley, Atlanta, Ga. 50c. and $1 bottles at drug-

At the Capitol. I have just taken the last two bottles of Dr. H. Mozly's Lemon Elixir for nerv ous headache, indigestion, with diseased liver and kidneys. The Elixir cured me,

I have not been able in two years to walk or stand without suffering great Since taking Dr. Mozley's Lem

Elixir I can walk half a mile without suf-MRS. R. H. BLOODWORTH, Griffin, Ga. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. Is it not worth the small price of 75c. to free yourself of every symptom of these distressing complaints; if you think so, call at our store and get a bottle of Shiloh's Vitalizer. Every bottle has a printed guarantee on it, use accordingly, and if it does on no good it will cost you nothing. Sold The Old Reliable Tin and Stove House Do you want a Refrigerator? If so, come and see the Alaska Water Coolers, Fly Fans, Fly Traps, White Mountain Ice Cream Freezers, Peach Parers, Apple Parers, Corers and Slicers. I have ployed my old workman, Hosey Brock-man, to do all kinds of work—such as Roofing, Guttering, Painting Roofs and general Job Work.

All work warranted L. H. SEEL. West End Hotel Chiquola Oxford and Family Bibles at G. W. Fant

You can buy a Reversible Overcoat for $2 50 at C. F. Jones & Co's. Clothing Store. We have a speedy and positive cure for catarrh, diphtheria, canker mouth and headache in Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. _A nasal injector free with each bottle. it if you desire health and sweet b Price 50c. Sold by Hill Bros. Diaries for 1808 for sale by Que. W. Fant & Bon.

To REST.-A pest 4-room session given lat January. Apply at this What is nicer for a Christmas presen than one of those Cravate in a glass box, or three of those beautiful white silk Handkerchiefs, initial in corner, three in box, that have just been received at C. F.

Both Stores Blooming with New Goods.

Beautiful Goods for Christmas.

come! Our prices for this month will move things.

CLOTHING AND OVERCOATS.

Men's Suits, Boys' Suits, Children's Suits just received, bought at closing out sales. You can't afford to miss this opportunity. Call early. The prettiest Skirts, Oravate, Silk Handkerchiefs, and thousands of pretty things for Christmas. We are going to sell cheap!

EVERY ONE WANTED!

We want all who visit Anderson during this menth, December, to call at our Stores and see the New Goods, whether you wish to buy or not. We thank you all for the immense trade we have enjoyed this Fall, Very respectfully,

C. F. JONES & CO.

Thousands of $HOES going cheap. Copper-tipped Children's Goods at 25c, to close them out. Best $1.00 Ladies' Shoe in the world! Men's Shoes from 75c to $5.00. Give us a look on Shoes.

-our-

SECOND STOCK

Opened for Inspection.

PRICES LOWER.

STYLES BEAUTIFUL OUR STORE NOW FOR BARGAINS.

The unexpected large trade for the past thirty days has caused our buyer to purchase an entire New Stock, and we have some rare bargains which we respectfully ask you

Indigo Prints. This every day article is needed in svery household. Warranted not to

Two and a half yards wide, good and heavy, ne trash or shoddy—our price for this sale, 15e.

Sheeting.

Bedford Cord. This is a heavy Cotton Dress Goodseautiful styles, will not fade, old price 15c, new price 8c.

Red Medicated Twill Flannel. This is a regular necessity for this cold weather. Our goods are wide, all wool, soft and fast color. Our price under any Blankets and Comforts. We have a grand line of these goods. Prices commence from $1.00 for a large white Blanket, and go up to $7.50 for an all wool Onlifornia Blanket. Kid Gloves. Alexander is the name of our brand and we guarantee every pair or meney refunded. Black, Tan and Slate only one dollar. Cloaks. We purchased our Cloaks recently after the season was over with the Man ufactories. Our price is fully twenty per cent lower had we purchased four weeks ugo. Ask to see them.

Clothing. To all who want Mens' Clothing, we wish to say that this Department will be discontinued-we will sell all Clothing at prime first cost, and bills will be shown if desired.

Trunks. We have a beautiful line of Saratoga Trunks to which we ask the attention of all who may wish a fine Trunk. Dress Goods. Storm Serge is the new material for mostly worn. We have these goods in mion. New York retail merchants ask 75c, our price is only 49c. White Goods.

We find we have a lot of Check Nain-sook on hand from last Summer. You

Ladies' wear-Navy Blue is the shade can buy these goods way under value. Call and see them. Cotton Flannel. In this Department we are overstock-

d. Oall and see our grand leader in Jotton Flannel at 7c-it is a hummer. Shoes. Oar second Fall shipment is now ready—all new and fresh, no shoddy or paper soles. Buy year Shoes from us, Satine. Our Black Satine in all grades, and French Satine in colors is simply grand, all new and fresh.

OUR SECOND GRAND OFFER.

In order to introdues our Goods and prices to the Trading Public we will present, free of charge, to every purchaser amounting to $2.00 and upwards one Cake DR. BISTON'S ALL HEALING SOAP. This article is world renowned, and will positively sure stapped hands, and reader the complexion fair as a lilly

Come and seefus.

REMEMBER THEPLACE

We can and will Save you Money.

UNDER MASONIO HALL.

LESSER & CO.

SEE WHAT

«C.F.JONES.& CO.» JONES. & CO.

SHOW IN

CHRISTMAS TRIX

WE have just received a lot of Silk and Leather-lined

WORK BASKETS

Which we bought cheap. LOOK AT THEM.

LADIES', GENTS' and CHILDREN'S CAMBRIC, LIN-

HANDKERCHIEFS,

In all qualities. Stamped Linens in almost anything you

And then, Ladies, you know your husbands would all be glad to have a new pair of

SLIPPERS,

For a Present, so while out buying Presents call and look at our line of Gents' Slippers.

Thanking our many friends and public generally for their past patronage, and asking for a continuance of the same, and wishing you all a very Merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year,

We are yours,

JONES, SEYBT & CO.

..... 20.00

TAKE NOTICE.

H'ROM THIS DATE UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE WE WILL SELL OUR $35 00 Breech Leading Shot Guns at $25.00

..... 17.50 20.00 12.50 15.00 10.00 Muzzle 9.00 Big Stock of Shot, Powder,

Hunting Coats and Leggings,

Game Bags, Hand Bags, Lunch Bags, &c All sold at close figures. TO THE LADIES.

Primers, Wads, Caps,

Call and see our beautiful COAL VASES.

CUMNINCHAM & HUMPHREYS.

300 Bushels Seed Rye,

500 Bushels Seed Barley,

1000 Bushels Seed Oats. New Crop Orchard Grass, Red Top Grass,

FRESH STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES Arriving every day at the Lowest Prices for Cash.

Clover Seed.

D. S. MAXWELL & SON, NO. 5 HOMML CHIQUOLA.

IF YOU WANT TO SEE

THE PRETTIEST PLACE IN TOWN.

Drop around and take a look at

Will. Hubbard's Jewelry Palace! Next to Farmers and Merchants Bank.

ALL I ask is a look through. NO trouble to show Goods.

WORK promptly and neatly done. GIVE me a call.

WILL. R. HUBBARD, J. M. Hubbard & Bre's. Old Stand.

FRESH BLUE STONE.

BE sure you plant lots of WHEAT this Fall, and be sure you got some of our BLUE STONE to soak it in. Big lot just received to be sold chesp. Remember the Five Dollar Turnip Prize to be paid November 15th

Don't forget the Parlor Matches at 5c. per dosen Boses.

ORRESIOAN.

Syrup Red Clover the Best Blood Medicine.

LOCAL NEWS

Cetten is quoted at from 91 to 95 this

Read Jones, Seybt & Co's. new adver-

A merry Christman to every reader of the INTELLIGENCER!

the next fiscal year will be three and ninereceived a few days ago.

Court House. Go and see it.

for the staple.

has been engaged for the occasion.

his advertisement in another column.

he purchased a year ago. Mr. J. W. Campbell, who has been living near Belton, has rented Col. Tribble's plantation, tend the services.

and moved up last week.

pays more taxes in that County than he loes in Pickens."

ublic to attend the meeting.

been a good boy and it is not often that he leaves his home or neighborhood.

Our young friend, John E. Wiginsten. of Newell, S C., dealer in improved to give it to them, for they have worked hard and faithful all year and deserve a little rest and recreation. Therefore there will be nothing but an advertising sheet issued from this office mext week, which we are compelled to publish on acount of some legal advertisements now election of a wife, who is a most excellent, amiable young lady.

succes in his new position. Mr. John M. Hubbard, with his usual know that the Confederate treasury was located in Anderson in 1864-65. In the Spring of 1864 it was moved from Charlotte, N. C., to this place, the employees, presses, plates, safes, books, etc., being transported through the country in wagons. There were one hundred and fifty were both occupied by them. The treasbefore the raiders reached Anderson. It is said the treasury contained considerable gold and silver and that several of the officials with a few citizens knew where it went to. It was well that they secured it, for the raiders would have took it. The Zion, in turn as may be announced.

J. C. SPANN, P. C.

Christmas Cards and Booklots at G. W. Fant & Son's Book Store. C. F. Jones & Co's. two stores are full at the proper time they would set down in their memorandum book the date when a fresh new year begins and would be as prompt as in the payment of a note the date when a fresh new year begins and would be as prompt as in the payment of a note the date when a fresh new year begins and would be as prompt as in the payment of a note the date when a fine lot of the dat much in a hundred subscribers, but the aggregate of several hundred amount to considerable, and judge what it may be to any publisher.

Holiday Goods. Call and see them.

C. F. Jones & Co's. are effering an impose stock of shoes very low. Now is unusue stock of shoes very low. Now is highly enjoyed by an old backelor like us. Such visits are highly enjoyed by an old backelor like us. The mat the price at C. F. Jones & Co's. The first shoes is not lovely young ladies, spent a night with lovely young ladies, spent a night with our family recently. Such visits are highly enjoyed by an old backelor like us. Such visits are highly enjoyed by an old backelor like us. The mat the price at C. F. Jones & Co's. The manufacturers is during December you can them at the price at C. F. Jones & Co's. The manufacturers is during December you can them at the price at C. F. Jones & Co's. The manufacturers is during December you can them at the price at C. F. Jones & Co's. The manufacturers is during December you can them at the price at C. F. Jones & Co's. The manufacturers is during December you can the manufacturers is the manufacturers in the manufacturers is during December you can the wards, of Darlington, S. C., and Miss M. isbing up their affairs for this year, ex-Lucia Patrick, of this city, took place in the Baptist Church on Wednesday evening, 14th inst., Dr. Charles Manly, of work it has been with the majority, and Greenville, officiating. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity, and everybody admired the pretty but simple rest. Most of them have backbones and apparaths to live more than were raised at the control of the een spending a week with his sister, Mrs. C. P. Kay, who returned with him Miss Ella Mitchell, of the Hopewell section, has been spending a week with

From appearances now it looks like all perintendent of Neal's Creek Sunday School last Sunday which will be the are glad to say is improving, being able to sit up part of the day.

One of Doc's girls sent him word the Friend "Warley" is practicing "Jule" every day, and says that if he had another week, he could make into "Mohawk" Christmas in a half day.

Boys, look out—Julian is going to get the advantage of us. He has done blacked Honea Path Happenings. The Presbyterian Church here will have Children's Day exercises on the afternoon of Christmas day and will take a collection for Thornwell Orphanage. Our people should make the collection a liberal one. Thornwell Orphanage is probably the grandest charitable institution in the State. Broadmouth Church will observe Chil-dren's Day, beginning at 10 o'clock Christmas morning. Addresses will be made

There have been very few mortgage

Miss Mertie Hiott is visiting friends in Hones Path. We understand that there was a fine sociable at Mr. Dave Garrison's last Satur- will be benevolent enough to me as to fill fever, but they don't intend going this season. Maybe we can get them out of that notion by next fall.

Prue, go it while you can; when you get that notion by next fall.

It is reported that Rev. R. J. Williams

As I haven't seen anything from this neighborhood in some time, I will try and write a few words. We are having some cold and unpleas-I believe farmers are about through sowing grain, &c, and are getting ready for the holidays, which are close at hand. The little city of Denver is growing

Miss Smith, a prominent young lady of

As news in these parts is scarce, I will be obliged to desist for the prezent.

Mr. Bill. Miller, of the city, has been

Jones & Co's. Clothing Store. C. F. Jones & Co. have just bought a

FULLY EQUIPPED

B C. WEBB.

FOR DECEMBER!

MEN AND LADIES. COME!

LADIES, see the new Ginghams, Outing Flannels, Water Proofs, 150 boantiful Silk Handkerchiefs at 25c, worth double the mency. Look at the beautiful Fancy Linen Searth, etc., and many-

Our Dress Goods, Cloaks, Blankets, Jeans and entire Stock must go this month at OUT PRICES. Ladies.